

About the Conference

Innovating Today for a Sustainable Tomorrow

The conference aims to foster interdisciplinary collaboration by bringing together experts, researchers, and students to address global sustainability challenges. The conference will explore innovative solutions, showcase advancements, and promote actionable strategies for achieving the SDGs. Through knowledge-sharing, networking, and dialogue, IAIMASDG 2025 seeks to drive impactful change and empower future leaders in sustainability.

Mode of Presentation: Both paper and poster presentations will be welcomed. The Conference will be conducted in a hybrid mode. International participants can present virtually.

Accommodation will be provided upon request for outstation participants.
